1. Chapter 1

_I do not own any characters or harry potter_ (Chapter 1, pg1, the beginning)

The train swayed back and forth as it rode along the tracks. I sat reading my favorite book: Romeo and Juliet_ (by whilom shacksbeard)._

'_It's been a long two years since my first year at Hogwarts School of witch craft and wizardry. I found out how my parents really died and that being harry potter is exhausting. ... I met my closest friends: the smart yet stupid Ron Wesley, ugly yet intelligently beautiful Hermione granger, Navel longbottem the brave but careless, the pranksters Fred and gorge the twins and brothers of Ron, Luna that knows strange things and even Draco Malfoy the school bully, plus jenny Ron's sister then as well. They helped me through the first and second year; those years were awful, I had to find a stone and fight a crazy professor with two heads, plus a snake to save jenny (cause she touched 'he who must not be named' diary) and I almost kill myself every time' _I thought with stress as I put my book down to looked out the window.

'_Funny that in all this time everyone thinks I'm a boy, even now. It didn't help when I accidently drank a potion the first year that turned me into a boy... permanently ugh... thanks Ron' _I thought crudely when suddenly the cart door opened and a tall man entered. The man had black long hair and dark hazel eyes with a nose that looked as if it had been broken several times. He walked over to the booth on the other side of the cart and sat down. Snape settled into his seat and looked up to see who was going to be sharing a ride with him only to see the last person he wanted to see. Harry's eyes met Snape's, as he looked up.

'_Hmmm I wonder why professor Snape, my potions master is here. Maybe the other teachers kicked him out pff... because last time I checked we were on bad terms. Since I blamed Snape for steal the sorcerer stone he's been failing me and being very rude ever since. I bet they booed him out for being grumpy and a prude' _I thought grinning.

'_What is he doing here?' _Snape thought angrily grinding his teeth when he saw Harry grinning.

"_Good evening Mr. Potter it seems we'll be sharing this cart together" _Snape said with an angry look on his face. Harry only smiled at him.

'_Why me' _I sighed and asked myself sadly, But I kept smiling knowing it would piss him off. Seeing how Snape was now glaring at me I went back to my was an hour after I had finished my book and was now sipping hot coco that I bought from the trolley that had stopped by two minutes ago; offering refreshments._ (Harry had ordered hot coco, while professor Snape had gotten fire whiskey that apparently existed). _Snape was about to drink his third cup of fire whiskey when he noticed harry staring out the now open window.

'_His hair got longer' _Snape thought seeing harry's now shoulder length hair and noticed harry's young face that had aged bit.

'_He's gotten older...cuter too... (Coughs) ...wait what am I thinking!' _Snape thought as he choking on his drink.

'_I wonder when we'll be their' I _thought before I noticed snap choking. Alarmed I got a water bottle from my suitcase that I brought with me and gave it to him.

"_Here drink this it will help ...I think" _ I said to him uncertainly as I passed the water to him, but he pushed it away shaking his head.

"_No! (Coughs)... I'm fine! (Coughs)" _Snape tried to yell, but failed; which pissed me off and I give him a cold look.

"_Now you listen drink it now or I'll make you_!" I yelled very sternly at him. Snape froze and sort of laughed at me.

"_You... make me... No way" _Snape said between laughs and choughs. Pissed I grabbed his nose pulling it up towards the sky; which had opened his mouth and poured the water into his mouth until he coughed and couldn't take anymore. Snape swallowed the water and stared at me in shock.

"_Well, that worked," _I said with relief as I sat back down in my seat. Snape then snapped out of it and got out of his seat with rage.

"_You little how dare you!" _Snape said panting and grinding his teeth very angrily.

"_It worked didn't it" _I said with a grin on my face. Snape sighed and sat back down. The rest of the way to Hogwarts we mostly didn't talk. When the train got to the Stop me and professor Snape got up to leave the cart and I accidently tripped. Snape had grabbed me making sheer I didn't fall but, in a brief moment where we stood in the cart that Snape had squeezed tighter to me. Snape then let go of me, but something in his eyes t scared me as he looked straight at me.

"I'm sorry excuse me and have a good day professor," I said quickly parting ways with professor Snape and got off the train to meet up with my friends.

It was morning of the day after everyone started the New Year at Hogwarts and like always: I and Hermione granger and Ron Wesley were running late for class. We all were running to get to class when Ron yelled to Hermione as we made the cross rode in the hall where it leads to potions and D.A.T.D.A _(defence against the dark arts)_

"_Ay! What class do ...we have for the ...first period!" _Ron tried to yell as he ran.

"_Potions class the classroom to the right!" _Hermione yelled back. We made it in time before the bell to the classroom, but to Snape we are always late. We entered the class where everyone was working as Professor Snape sat at his desk marking assignments. Snape looked up from his work and frowned when he saw the three musketeers of the school.

"_Your all late," _he said in his smooth deep voice with a bit of irritation.

"_It's my fault sir I woke up late" _I said proudly when really it was Ron that slept in. Ron looked at me with tears and a thankful look on his face. I kept eye contact with Snape's which looked like a tigers ready to strike_. _

"_Very well Mr. Potter you'll have detention here at the end of the day for a month, now take your seats your work is written on the board" _he said with a raised eyebrow, then he went back to his marking. The three took their seats in the empty desks in the back.

'_Ugh just what I needed now I don't get any time for Quidditch I'm so stupid' _I thought angrily as I made my potion that turned black when it was supposed to turn green. Hermione saw this and put an ingredient in it that made it perfect. She looked at me angrily.

"_Thank you" _I whispered back. Hermione only mouthed 'pay attention' to me and went back to her work. Later at lunch Hermione looked at Ron disgusted at how he was eating his food like a wild animal. I sat back and watched it play out.

"_Ron cant you please at least try to eat normally, for not our sakes but yours. You look like a wild animal" _Hermione said very loudly in a very British nosy manner_. _

"_Butt out Hermione, bloody hell" _Ron yelled with attitude back at Hermione. The sound of Hermione's hand hitting Ron's face echoed through the whole hall and there was silence as everyone was looking at us.

"_Ron you jerk!" _Hermione yelled as she then ran out of the hall crying with Ron running after her.

'_This is my life...at least they're still the same after all this time' _I thought playing with my food and smiling sadly; at the same time Draco came into the hall and spotted me alone. He walked over to me when he saw that I was sad.

"_Hey look! Harry Potters upset, I wonder why?" _Draco asked teasingly as he sat on the other side of the table opposite from my seat. I looked up and automatically went from sad to mischievous.

"_What are you talking about and I'm fine man it's just ...I've just been thinking about homework and how you never do it" _I said back also teasing in my voice_._

"_Well shut up Harry Potter!" _Draco said dramatically as he got up and walked away laughing_. _

'_Why is he so care free? Err! That bloody Mr. Potter why are you always in my head?' _Snape thought, but he was not angry more like conflicted.

"_Hey Severus just what pray tell has gotten your attention so much that you're not even eating your food?" _Ms .McGonagall asked sitting beside him. Snape was shocked that he didn't realise he was watching Harry Potter since he stepped into the great hall. Snape rubbed his sore temple and got up not looking at Ms. McGonagall.

"_A person that's what" _he said bitterly to her before turning around and through the back door to the dungeons in one smooth motion. He didn't even stop to hear her gasp of surprise to the unexpected news. Harry looked at Snape leave._ (Soft sigh)_

'_He was staring at me weird, but then again it's Snape. Geez why am I even thinking about him or even care? Ugh, I need fresh air' _I thought stressfully as I left to go walk in the court yard and forget about all the things that were stressing me out. First I went to the fountain that was in the middle of the school grounds and saw the twin's had put a never ending bubbles spell on it. The bubbles were over flowing everywhere, but I helped clean it up. After I went to visit Haggred's hut and helped him with his weird garden. The bell rang for the next class; which for me was transformation class. I said good bye to hagrid and ran to class. After transformation class I went to bed early in the boy's dorm. My bed had been placed in there _(another reason why everyone thinks I'm a boy). _I lay down on my bed and closed my eyes. I dreamed of the first day I came into the common room and they had told us all to go to are beds whichwere located in are dorms. Ron yelled at me to stop as I retched for the door to the girl's dorm. He had asked me what I was doing, because my bed was in the boy's dorm.

'_Somehow every year my bed is there. It's like dumbuldor thinks I'm a boy; which he probably doesn't... I think?' I thought with a Big stressing sigh as I then dreamed of what happened at dinner._

'_I wander why Snape was staring at me maybe he likes me..., but that would mean he likes a guy' _I thought to myself with a chuckled and slipped off to sleep. Sometime later after I had fallen asleep something was shaking me and telling me to get up. I slowly opened my eyes and saw Ron frowning at me.

"_Dude you have detention with Snape, I would get my ass down their now so you don't get another one man" _Ron said worriedly. I looked at the time and like lightning I raced down to the dungeons bursting through the doors of the potions class room. Snape after his last class left sat in his black leather arm chair with a bad migraine.

'_Why do kids have to be so stupid' _he thought angrily before He saw harry's desk which had flowers surprisingly carved into it. He chuckled a bit with a smirk.

'_What an interesting boy... speaking of which, he should be down here by now-' (bam!) _Snape's thoughts were cut short as harry barged in with as much power as Snape when entering a room.

"_I'M NOT LATE!" _I yelled Breathing hard from running_._

'_Holly crap did I make it? Please tell me I did' _I thought after I saw the shocked expression of my professor. That turned into a death glare that sent a shiver down my spine.

"_Harry James Potter where do you think we are! Use proper manners or else" _Snape said coldly with a warning in his voice.

"_Yes sir sorry," _I said quietly and started cleaning the cauldrons and vials_ (this is what students do for detentions in Snape's class). _While Snape worked on documents that dumbledore happily gave him.

2. Chapter 2

This is for the people that have followed me and friend me on thank you all it means a lot. ;p

_I did not make or own harry potter or the characters _

_(Chapter 2, pg 1, the peace before the storm)_

The next day I, Ron and Hermione were sitting in the hall having breakfast; which was bacon and eggs with French toast.

"_Hay Harry, what happened with you and professor Snape yesterday? Did you make it in time?" _Ron asked looking up from his food.

'_What did happen yesterday?' _I thought remembering the detection.

_(Flashback to snaps detention)_

After I got started cleaning silence invaded the room and I looked over to where Snape sat writing.

'_Why is he always grouchy and mean' _I thought, but I stopped that thought, when I noticed he looked calmer then he usually did. Snape finished the documents long ago, but he pretended he was still doing them. He looked over to harry and their eyes meet. Snape raised an eyebrow as I was about say something.

"_Why are you always so upset? I want to know" _harry said vary bluntly, but kindly at the sometime. Snape was shocked by the question, everyone always knew he was upset, but only dumbuldor had asked why.

"_along time ago I lost some one and ever since then I've been like this, even before that people were mean to me so I have a hard time trusting people now" _he said sadly looking away from my eyes.

'_Why am I even telling him this it's not like anyone cares' _Snape thought angry at himself for saying something personal.

"_It's best to not forget the past_, _but to learn from it instead. If you hold on to the past for too long you'll miss something greater" _I said with a proud voice and went back to cleaning. Snape amazed that Harry let alone cared, but had not token the moment to make fun of him. Got up and made his way over to harry.

'_How is it you can act so mature, but still be this young' _snap thought with a smile and saw that harry was done washing and only needed to dry the vials. So he sent him off to bed and said he'd dried the rest of the vials himself.

_(End of flashback)_

"_It went better than I thought it would" _I said with a shrug and continued eating. Ron and Hermione dropped their forks and looked at me like I had grown a seconded head.

"_Harry, what happened in order for you to think that" _said Hermione a little scared. I sighed telling them what happened, but not the part when Snape told me something personal. When I finished eating and telling them what happened I left the hall without another word leaving them in shock. I was on my way to the library through an empty hallway near the stairs when I felt a stinging pain in my chest and fell to the ground. Pain over whelmed me, but soon faded. I got back up trying to shake off what just happened when I noticed professor Lupin the professor of Defence against the dark arts class, having a hard time carrying books. I went over to help already forgetting the pain that had somehow went away.

"_Sir, Do you need a hand with those" _I asked him politely taping his shoulder. He looked around and saw me with a smile of relief on his face_._

"_Thank the heavens! Yes! ...thank you dear I was worried on how I was going to get these books to class, who might I say you are young lady?"_He said with a kind smile and something else in his eyes, but I couldn't quiet place it. I smiled back and not wanting him to know I'm harry potter, but wondering how he knew I was a girl; I told him my second name that I came up with on the spot.

"_Its Emmy professor Emmy.p" _I said in a mature manner with a bright smile which he returned. We walked down the moving staircases talking about magic and animals. We got to his class room where I put the book's I was carrying on his desk in the front of the class room. I looked towards him and he was placing his books on a shelf on the top left corner. At the back of the classroom, He turned around to meet my gaze.

"_Oh my look at the time I need to go sorry, professor lupin" _I said blushing a little_._

"_That's okay thank you Mrs. Emmy I hope to see you again, where are you going to sit at the head table? So I can join you in a nice chat again" _he said with the same look he gave me in the hallway. I paused halfway out the door when he said sitting at the head table_._

'_What only teachers get to sit at the head table why does he think I would be sitting there?' _I thought as I turned around in confusion. When he saw me turn around with a confused face he smiled brighter.

"_as a new teacher here I want you to feel comfortable, since your new you probably don't know anyone yet so you and I can sit together if you'd like" _as he said that my mouth almost fell open, but I kept it shut.

'_Holly Crap! He thinks I'm one of the new teacher's, which professor Dumbuldor told everyone about at the morning speech before breakfast today, but why does he think I'm a teacher in the first place? Come to think about it he knew I was a girl too!' after my thoughts were under control I looked up at him and gave him a wicked smile._

"_Sorry that's classified!" I said in a teasing way and left the room to go to the girls bathe room on the third floor, as fast as I could. Lupin just stood there in shock of what just happened _

"_What an interesting woman, I like her" _lupin said with a hearty laugh as he grinned, continuing on with preparing his classroom for his next class. I locked the door to the girl's bathroom and went to the sinks that connected to make a circle in the center of the bathroom, to wash my hands. The moment I looked up at the mirror the whole school heard a high pitch scream from the girl's bathroom. Running down the hallways of Hogwarts towards the third floor girl's bathroom: dumbuldor, Snape, .McGonagall, Hagrid and some other teachers hurriedly ran to find out what the noise came from.

"_What has happened?" _asked professor lupin running up beside Snape after coming out of his classroom_ (which happened to be in the same hallway)._

"_Apparently there were screams coming from the third floor girl's bathroom" _Snape said metaphorically with a sneer to lupin. The teachers were now in front of the door to the girl's bathroom. McGonagall came up to the door and knocked three times.

"_Excuse me is anyone in there are you ok!" _she said with a loud stern, but also concerned voice.

_(Harry panicked) _

'_What am I suppose to do? Why does Ron's potion have to where off now!' _I said looking into the mirror and see me not as a boy but a girl.

'_So that's why professor lupin thought I was a girl, but still doesn't tell me why he thought I was a teacher though? ...Ok I need to find a way out so they don't see me!' _Looking around the bathroom there was no way out until I felt moaning myrtle taped my shoulder, with a giggle and pointed to the sink.

'_Oh the chamber of secrets, how could I forget!' _thanking myrtle with a wink, I disappeared into the chamber below the school. The teachers burst down the door and saw that there was no one in the bathroom. Dumbuldor sighed in relief that a student wasn't harmed and looked at myrtle with a smile that was a bit sad.

"_Well that was eventful wasn't it, I'll be going back to my quarters now I hope that this doesn't happen again" _dumbuldor said a bit angrily to the teachers and left. After dumbuldor left the other teachers did too accept for one. Severus stared at the sinks wondering if they missed something, but after a while he turned to leave. Before Snape could leave the bathroom the door to the chamber of secrets opened stunning Snape and he went in; going down in to a big hall with a giant lion head carving at the other end on the wall. Severus stopped at the entrance in shock, while myrtle snickered evilly floating away.

'_How come he never knew this place was here till now' _he thought looking around the hall, but stopped when he saw someone at the other end facing the carving.I sighed relived that I got away and looking at the head carving as I remembered my second year; how I saved jenny here. I smiled a bit in reminiscing about old times, but then remembering that I was now a girl stopped.

'_How is this happening, I thought that potion was permanent?' _pushing my thoughts to the side again as I heard someone enter the hall and Turned to face them to then freeze. Snap was about to demand answers for why this person was in this place, but stopped when their eyes met. There was a long silence and snap didn't know what to say; their right before him was the prettiest woman he had ever seen; her hair was a beautiful tree bark brownish-red and her eyes were the colour of the green forest of which the bark came from, she had skin as white as a white rose and was half his height. Harry on the other hand was freaking out.

'_What? Why is he here! Only the headmaster and my friends know about this place how could he know?!' _I panicked and soon fainted. Snape after seeing her fall to the ground ran over to her as fast as he could and saw she had a head wound from hitting the ground. He picked her up (princess style of course) being carful of her head and took her to his chambers.

'_Why did I bring this girl here I could have just left her there?' _snap thought as he saw the girl that he had laid down on his couch sleeping soundly and Smiling a little, he soon shacks the thought away. (Sometime later) After feeling that I was on a couch I slowly opened my eyes and saw that I was in a small dark room with a desk in one corner_ and a fire place in the other that was burning. _The couch that I was on was in the center of the room and beside it was a black leathered arm chair which professor Snape who was sleeping in it. He had a glass of whisky in his left hand that was laying on one of the chairs arms and his right was holding his head up. I stared at him for a long time wondering how I got here and noticing things about him, like how calm he is when he's sleeping or how he's not so bad tolook at.

"_What pray tell has gotten you so intrigued, that you cannot stop staring at me?" _Snape said sarcastically interrupting my thoughts. Blushing profoundly I looked away. _"Nothing ...I was just wondering how I got here that's all..." _I said shyly_. _Snape looked at the girl sternly for a moment and got up. He went into one of his rooms and came out with a potion that was bright blue.

"_Here drink this, it will help heal your head" _he said bluntly giving her the potion, and then sat down beside her. I looked at the bottle to avoid eye contact with him, but when he kept staring at me I knew he wanted to talk.

"_What is it you want to tell me sir, because if this is all thank you andâ€¦"_I said but stopped when he lightly touched my cheek with his thump. Looking at her he noticed that she had a blush on her cheeks, smirking he looked into her eyes and came closer.

"_No woman can get my attention, why is it you can?" _he asked in a low silky purr. I shove him off and got up to leave._ "Wait! I'm sorry I'm just not used to woman please forgive me miss?" _he pleaded while gabbing me by the wrist gently. I looked at him and see the slight panic in his eyes. I smiled at him softly.

"_It's Emmy.p and its ok, but don't do it again. Now I have to go, bye potions master" _I said as I shook off his hand and left the dungeons hastily. Snape just sat their relived, that she forgave him. Harry ran up the stairs away from the dungeons as fast as she could; making it to the common room entry passageway she calmed herself down.

'_Oh god what am I going to do now Snape knows I'm a girl â€¦wait maybe this is a good thing -OW!' _harry thought before being cut off with a stinging feeling in her chest, her body started to glow blue brightly then harry was back to being a boy again.

"_What theâ€¦what's happen to you child" _the fat lady in the painting of the passageway says in a questioning voice. Harry looks up at the fat lady with a sheepish smile.

"_I wish I knew" _harry said sheepishly, the fat lady looked at harry up and down then back at his face.

"_Go see hagrid, he knows more about weird things than anyone" _the fat lady said with a blunt tone and look.

"_Thank you fat ladyâ€¦ um could you keep this a secret for me please" _harry said quietly. The fat lady smiled and nodded. Harry made it to his bed and dressed into his pajamas to sleep.

'_Ok snap is really weird and so is lupin ugh I need to visit hagrid tomorrow why me?' _harry thought slipping into bed and dozing off roughly.

That's all guys, but it's not over yet he-he, just wait and see what happens next readers. Till next time, bye. ;p

3. Chapter 3

_Harry Potter fan fiction_

__I do not own or create harry potter and its characters__

__(Chapter 3/this can't be happening?)__

The next morning at breakfast, the main hall bustled with chatter. I sat beside Hermione playing with my food; Hermione saw this, but ignored it. Ron was stuffing his mouth full of food like always when I noticed professor lupin enter the hall with a big smile on this face, looking around the room for something or someone. His smile faded after his search and he went up to the teachers table sadly pouting.

"_Wow what do you think that was all about?" _Hermione says after witnessing professor Lupin's display and I shrugged in response to her question. Ron just rolled his eyes.

"_I thought you knew everything Hermione, because roomers are going around saying that professor lupin was seen after curfew yesterday with a woman" _Ron said sneakily after swallowing his food properly. Hermione was shocked and looked at me to see if I knew too. Panicking I only smile shyly in return; which caused her to glare at us. Remembering about last night and deciding to ask Hermione for help. I pulled her closer to me by the shoulder.

"_Hey I got a problem... well you know about that woman, well it was me and yes I'm a girl. I've only not been one, because of Ron's stupid alcohol potion could you help me out? And to understand" _I whispered in her ear, making Ron look at us funny. Hermione only looked shocked at first then was quiet for a moment and nodded.

"_So does that mean professor lupin was looking for... you?" _Hermione whispered back with a questioning look, I whispered to her everything that happenedyesterday. At the end of me explaining to her, she just looked at me stunned then got up and ran out of the main hall screaming angrily.

_(Lupin prov)_

I got to my seat at the teachers table and took my seat next to Snape. I looked around the hall again just to make sheer, but she wasn't anywhere. Sighing sadly I slumped in my chair sadly; Snape noticed this and laughed. I glared at him and was about to yell at Snape when everyone heard Hermione granger scream and ran out of the main hall. Harry got up and walked over to the main halls entrance. Turning around and bowing in an apology to everyone before leaving too. Snape only raised a brow getting up off his chair and leaving the main hall. I was concerned, but still had Emmy.p on my mind.

_(Harry prov)_

I cached up with Hermione walking to hagrid's hut and saw she was angry. Hermione glared at me and then frowned sadly.

"_I'm sorry for not noticing sooner harry" _Hermione said sadly to me, but I only smile back at her. Harry and Hermione walked to hagrid's hut, Harry knocked on the huts door three times and waited for hagrid to answer. Hagrid opened the door with a smile and invited them into his hut to sit down. They waited in awkward silence for awhile until hagrid sat down with tea tray in his big hands.

"_Hay harry, Hermione what can I help you with on this lovely day!" _hagrid asked with a smile, poring tea for Hermione how nodded her head. Harry looked grim and flashed Hermione a worried glance. Hermione gestured with her hand for harry to go on while she drank her tea.

"_Umm... I'm kind of a girl" _harry blurted out shyly which caused hagrid to spit out his tea in shock. Harry and Hermione tried not to giggle at hagrid's flustered face. They quickly told him what happened from last year to now and at the end of their story hagrid had leaned back on his old chair with a big sigh.

"_This is not good... you must tell no one or show no one that you're a girl it'll be dangerous ok... Oh! Wait for a seconded" _hagrid told them sternly. Being stunned by the sudden change in attitude they nodded and waited by the door as Hagrid went to the back of this hut. he came back out with a small box and opened it to show harry a small golden ring with two tiny tear shaped diamond's that connected to a bit digger blue ruby that was at the center of the ring.

"_put this on and you'll be able to control, when and where you want to be a boy or a girl, but it's a little rusty so be careful when you change form girl to boy got it, now on with you and don't get into trouble you hear" _hagrid told them before he gave harry the box with the ring in it and Hermione and harry left. I and Hermione ran to the third girl's bathroom with the ring. We both knew that the other wanted to see what would happen by the way are eyes met on the way back from hagrid's hut. We entered the bathroom and Hermione locked the door. We stood in the middle of the bathroom anxious about me putting the ring on. Hermione looked at me then the box that hold's the ring and nodded for me toopen the box; as I open it and take out the ring from the old small box it sparkles orange and blue. I put the ring on my middle finger with was still sparkling orange and blue. The ring sparkled brighter as my whole body is covered in them, but soon the sparkles retracted back into the ring. I looked at Hermione how had covered her mouth with one of her hands and her eyes showed that she was shocked. I gave her a questioning look and she pointed to one of the mirrors above the many sinks. I walk over and see me as a girl and I turn around with a wide grin that caused Hermione who was watching me to get a shiver up her back.

"_NO! Harry what you are thinking!" _Hermione yelled with worry as her friend started chuckling evilly. Harry looked at Hermione with a grin and sat done on the edge of the sink she was near.

"_I, Hermione have a sinister plain. What do you think of having me as your new teacher here, because I'd love to see what it's like?" _harry said with a giggle and hooped off the sink. Hermione looked at her questioningly and then it donned on her as she also started grinning too.

"_Oh I get it you want to play teacher and see what stuff you can find out and prank everyone. Oh! That's so sneaky. I like it harry I'm in everyone won't know what hit them ha-ha!" _harry and Hermione gave a wicked laugh as they Walk out the girls bathroom exit to the common room where they stopped at the fat lady painting.

"_okay tomorrow I'm going to go to professor dumbuldor to ask if I can teach here and if he says yes then the plains ago okay, but until then we don't do anything got it and we must keep this just between you and me okay Hermione?" _I whispered into Hermione's ear and then went to go throw the passage way until Hermione grabbed my arm.

"_But harry that's dangerous what if he figures it out and we get expelled or worse? Harry if you're going to do this just be careful and you forgot to turn back into a boy" _Hermione whisper with a wary smile and I gave her an understanding smile with a nodded; after I did that she smiled with relief and she went into the passage way to the Gryffindor common room. I was about to change back when I saw professor Snape round the corner at the end of the hallway I was in.

'_Awe shit not again why does he have to appear at the most inconvenient times? Ugh... what do I do I'm still in my student robes! Oh no' _I thought panicking as I looked done at my robes._ (Last time Snape saw harry it was too dark and they couldn't see each others clothes)_

'_Wait don't I know a spell to change? Yes! Thank you Miss McGonagall' _at that I took out my wand, before professor Snape noticed me I whispered ricrasempra and my robes changed into a beautiful black gown that cut and flared up at the ankle, around my stomach was a bright blue sash with a sun flower embroidery that made a soft bow on the front side of the dress. I stood at the other end of the hall as I watch him get closer and closer until when he was about half way done the hall he saw me. Snape had been thinking of the girl he had met in the chamber as he rounded the corner of the hallway and who she was or why he could not find her info anywhere.

'_Who are you Emmy.p?' _Snape thought as he reached half way done the hallway when he noticed blue in the corner of his eye and looking up to see her.

Cliff hanger ha-ha-ha I hoped you liked it and this will be the last chapter... I'm kidding ha-ha just wait you guys the best parts coming chow ;p
